ROLES

Head Cook / Grubmaster

Determine cooking schedule, assign responsibilities to assistant cook(s), prepare meals, advise Patrol when meal will be served, ensure all utensils used for cooking are clean before using.

Assistant Cook

Assist with meal preparation as determined by Head Cook.

Fire & Water

- Ensure fire buckets or hose are ready as applicable. Arrange or clean fire pit in accordance with Scout policy. Find and stack wood needed for fire or start charcoal if needed. Keeps fire going throughout the meal preparation time. Ensure fire is completely out when no longer needed. Light camp stove (if used) and clean afterwards. Ensure fuel is properly stored per BSA guidelines.
- Prepare hand washing station with warm water and rinse water (same tubs as used later for cleanup). Keep water carrier full and refill when needed. Purify water if potable water is not available. Prepare Lemonade, Ice water or other drinks. Wash and dry all drink coolers if used for drinks other than water.

TASKS

Cook

Wash hands, gather ingredients & equipment, manage time, prepare meals.

Kitchen & Patrol Site Cleanup

Wash, dry and store all utensils and cooking equipment into Gear Box. Clear and clean table. Return supplies to Dry Box for storage. Oil Dutch Oven if used. Notify Troop Quartermaster if any supplies are needed. Set up garbage bags, start a new garbage bag when current one is full. Discard all trash around Patrol campsite. Empty garbage bags & lockup all smellables at night. Secure equipment and return to Gear Box when no longer used. Ensure toilet facilities are cleaned and stocked with supplies.

Patrol Campsite Setup & Other Responsibilities

The whole patrol should share campsite set up. Before pitching personal tents, the Patrols should set-up the patrol & troop dining fly and secure and other supplies or equipment. The Troop Quartermaster should display flags and ensure the First Aid Kit is displayed in a prominent area. At the conclusion of the camp out, the site should be returned to the same condition it was in with all trash carried out.
